

In this newsletter :

- Tenso Professionals Meeting 2017
- Call for young composers
- Tenso Days Amsterdam 2016, TYCW

Tenso Professionals Meeting 2017

Paris, 23-24 January 2017

WORD AND MUSIC IN CHORAL ART

The 2017 conference will take place in the Philharmonie in Paris (FR). An international audience of writers, composers, performers and other professionals from the field of music will discuss the challenges of expressing texts in choral music.

Le Jeune Choeur de Paris will, under direction of Henri Chalet (FR), act as "singing tool", performing texts that have been set in different compositions.

Register now!

More information about the programme on our website

Call for young composers

In 2017, Tenso will organize many activities in the region around the WWI front at the Soca river between Italy and Slovenia. A special edition of the composers workshop will be organized with Zbor Slovenske Filharmonije.

The call for composers from the Central Europe region is now open

More information

Deadline 1 February.

More information about the project 14-18 From Poetry to Music

TENSO DAYS AMSTERDAM 2016

The most recent edition of the Tenso Days took place in Amsterdam in November.

With public conducting masterclasses by Grete Pedersen and Daniel Reuss, the first Tenso concert of newest member Polski Chór Kameralny, and a spectacular finale featuring the four Tenso choirs and three amateur choirs.

Look at the pictures of workshops, masterclasses and concerts

TYCW

Three composers have been selected for the second round of the workshop in Mechelen in May 2017 :

- Sarah Lianne Lewis
- Lillie Harris
- Miguel Bastos

Listen to the recordings of the composers workshops

We wish you a Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year!

The activities of Tenso Network Europe are supported by the Culture Programme of the European Union.

Culture

